World Savvy is a leading national education nonprofit working to transform teaching, learning and culture in K-12 public education so all students can learn, work and thrive in our rapidly changing world as globally competent citizens. World Savvy is unique in the field for our systems change approach that holistically supports the integration of global competence into student learning, teacher training and capacity, and school and district leadership. We have offices in Minneapolis (largest), San Francisco and New York City. Learn more at www.worldsavvy.org.

Mission: World Savvy educates and engages youth to learn, work, and thrive as responsible global citizens.

Vision: As the leading provider of global competence education, World Savvy envisions a K-12 education system that prepares all students with the knowledge, skills, and dispositions for success and active engagement in the global community.

World Savvy is an ambitious organization with big ideas and tenacious growth goals. Our culture is one of optimism, authenticity, levity and learning. World Savvy is deeply committed to anti-racism, inclusion and equity in our programming and workplace. As we grow, we will intentionally build a team that reflects the ethnic, racial and cultural diversity of the students, educators and communities we serve. World Savvy seeks individuals who are Black, Indigenous and People of Color to apply.

Position Summary:
We’re looking for a global education-minded professional to join our team in San Francisco. The World Savvy Professional Learning Facilitator is a critical member of the Program Team. The ideal candidate is an educator with proven experience in K-12 global education to oversee and implement our programs. Reporting to the Bay Area Executive Director, the Professional Learning Facilitator is responsible for guiding and implementing professional learning and coaching of educators and school leaders across all aspects of our program. Information on our program can be found at https://www.worldsavvy.org/our-programs/.

The position works in partnership with counterparts in Minneapolis, and the entire World Savvy Program Team. They are also responsible for working in partnership with the Program Team to develop and refine program materials, tools, and resources.

Our Values:
- We do the best work possible in service of our mission.
- We believe collaboration is essential.
- We see people as whole human beings.
- We intentionally grow and change.
- We lean into complexity when it’s called for.
- We believe big things are possible, whether that’s our mission or the project on the table.
- We notice and disrupt exclusionary patterns.
- We bring hope, joy, and a sense of aspiration into all that we do.

Schedule: Full time, limited nights and weekends as required by program.
Salary range: $70,000 - $90,000 based on experience
Projected Start Date: November 2020
Application Deadline: Open until position is filled
Location: San Francisco, CA (All employees are currently working remotely due to Covid-19.)
Travel Requirements: Up to 50% local school based travel. Some national travel is expected. Will need access to reliable and timely transportation to travel to our offices and schools in the Bay Area. Not all schools are accessible by public transit.
Key Responsibilities:

Program Delivery and Implementation
- Plan and execute, in collaboration with other Program Team members, all aspects of professional learning and coaching, from recruitment through evaluation.
- Lead local and online professional learning sessions, ensuring the highest quality implementation of every aspect of our program and high satisfaction among participants.
- Implementation of school and district Partnership activities, including translating the needs of educators, schools, and districts into tailored global competence materials, tools, and resources.
- Provide support for implementation of local, school-based student festivals, ensuring high-quality student work and a powerful student experience.
- Strategically apply knowledge of the global education field and understanding of educator needs to support continuous program improvements.
- Coordinate with other World Savvy staff to plan logistics around program events and group gatherings, including professional development workshops, etc.
- Function as a contributing member of the Program Team through open dialogue, assisting other team members, and by partnering with teams across the organization as needed. Provide coaching support for educators and school leaders in the service of developing:
  • High-quality, project-based curriculum and assessment that embeds global competence into practice.
  • High-quality student projects that model the evolution of “Knowledge to Action.” See background at http://www.worldsavvy.org/k2a

Recruitment, Relationship Development, and Outreach to Partners
- In collaboration with National Program Team and Bay Area Executive Director, develop and implement a recruitment plan to effectively build a strong pipeline of prospective earned revenue opportunities.
- In partnership with the Bay Area Executive Director expand our reach and actively generate new school partnerships.
- Build strong relationships with participating educators and students, ensuring program retention and engagement levels remain high.
- Represent World Savvy at regional conferences and community events, some of these occurring on evenings and weekends, as needed.
- Provide guidance to the Bay Area Executive Director on regional communication and marketing strategy to support recruitment goals in the Bay Area.

Key Requirements:
- Bachelor’s degree in education or related field required.
- Master’s degree in education or related field, or equivalent experience, strongly preferred.
- Minimum of 7 years of classroom facilitation experience.
- Experience in developing and implementing project-based learning experiences.
- Experience leading professional development for educators, and engaging and supporting ethnically, culturally, and socioeconomically diverse youth.
- Experience in coaching educators and knowledge of coaching best practices.
- Global education experience and proven success in the field.
- Knowledge of the Bay Area education landscape.
- Ability to guide the ongoing improvement of core World Savvy programming, as it connects to the strategic growth of the organization.
- Strong presentation and written communication skills; clear and professional demeanor. Proven ability to use educational technology and virtual tools to solve problems and work with others.
- Excellent interpersonal skills; ability to work effectively in a small and collaborative team environment.
- Proficiency with Microsoft Office and Google applications. Familiarity with Salesforce and ASANA a plus.
- Solution-oriented approach, with excellent time management and organizational skills; strong attention to detail.
- Ability to work in a fast-paced, deadline-oriented environment, at times independently.

A note about World Savvy’s commitment to anti-racism and recruiting:
In the past, we’ve used equity and inclusion language to express our social justice values and our intention to build a team that reflects the racial diversity of the students, educators and districts we serve. Like many organizations, we’ve recognized how passive and ineffective this has been at overcoming the effects of systemic racism that have impacted the workforce for generations. Many things need to change, including the dialogue we have with job seekers. To that end, we share the following:

Our commitment is that as we grow, we will intentionally build a team that reflects the ethnic, racial and cultural diversity of the students, educators and communities we serve. This population is currently 50% or more BIPOC. Recognizing the gap we have on our team, we’re seeking individuals who are Black, Indigenous and People of Color to apply. We believe these life experiences and perspectives are critical, in particular, to advance our global competence work. At its core, this work is about teaching students to practice empathy, appreciate cultural differences, consider multiple perspectives and collaboratively problem solve. In an increasingly divided world, the continued success of this work hinges on modeling this ourselves, continuously learning and growing.
